IS A RICHMOND BOY. UNFORTUNATE WILLIE GIPPERICH BUT RECENTLY LEFT HERE.

He Went to Baltimore to Work, and Under a Mental Hallucination Tried to Take His Life—Imagined He Was Being Pursued.

Frederick William Gipperich, who was on Tuesday night taken to the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, with a gun in his hand, and whose strange actions and wild story, as gleaned from papers on his person, were narrated in a special to the Dispatch of yesterday, is a son of Mr. A. Gipperich, the well-known watchmaker of this city.

Yesterday evening the hospital authorities saying that his son was doing very well, but there is nothing in the details of the account telegraphed the Dispatch inconsistent with what might have been expected of young Gipperich, considering his peculiar mental malady.

Young Gipperich, a former student of the University of Virginia, and a native of this city, is said to be a very intelligent and successful young man, and was an enthusiastic member of the University's baseball team. He left Richmond about ten years ago for the West, where he played baseball for a while, but some five years ago settled down to work at his trade in a shoe-manufacturing factory in Richmond.

RETURNING TO RICHMOND. About twelve months since he injured one of his fingers so as to incapacitate him for work, and his father, hearing of this, invited him to come with him to Richmond and make him a visit. This invitation was accepted, and he was very dependent and listless. In fact, he could hardly be induced to do any work, and his father, seeing that the boy was in a state of mental derangement, and that he was getting a "job," gradually, however, he brightened up, and during the winter he returned to the farm of Mr. Boschen, near Glen Allen. Here he and his wife (the mother of Willie) lived for some time, and returned to Richmond in the fall of last year.

SICHERS A PLACE. Early last week Mrs. G. O. Sichert, who is an Indiana lady, left Richmond, on a short visit to the home of her parents, and on Friday young Gipperich received a telegram from a Baltimore firm stating that he would be ready to go to work on Monday. He talked the matter over with his father, and on Saturday afternoon, in company with Mr. Welder, who had secured work with the same Baltimore firm, he started for the Monumental City via the York River route. On yesterday Mr. Boschen received a letter from Mr. Gipperich, stating that his company had acted very strangely on the boat, and had cried a good deal over being separated from his mother and child, and that the wife had had no sight of him Monday.

SUBJECT TO HALLUCINATIONS. Mr. A. Gipperich, the father, is one of Richmond's most esteemed German citizens, and the news of his son's condition was a great shock to him. In conversation with a Dispatch representative he said that his son had long been troubled at times by the victim of hallucinations, which took the form of a belief that he was being pursued by some one. Especially during the winter he had been separated from his wife and child, and he was devoted, indeed, he was completely wrapped up in the child. Mr. Gipperich spoke in the most affectionate manner of his son, and said that Willie and his wife were a most loving couple. The husband's wife, however, was of course, he said, useless, and the outgrowth of temporary mental disturbances.

WILL BE TRIED IN NORFOLK. The Smuggling Cases Fixed for May 10—Other Indictments.

W. A. Hayes, G. T. Uzell, and P. J. Muehl, R. J. Gannaway, Frank James, George Brown, J. W. Seiben, Malachi Denison, and M. J. Donovan, against whom the United States grand jury had Tuesday found true bills for smuggling one barrel of rum, were brought to this city yesterday from Norfolk, where they were taken before Judge Hughes, and held in the city jail for their appearance.

Death of a Well-Known Printer. Mr. Isaac N. Williams died at his residence on west George street, yesterday morning at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Williams was a native of New York, and was one of the best-known printers of Richmond. He came to Richmond when he was 12 years of age, and remained here until he was 20 years old, when he was employed by the Richmond Herald. He then went to the management of Mr. William Sande, his former employer, and remained with him for several years. He was a devoted and efficient printer, and was well-known in the city.

Union Meeting of Young Baptists. There will be a great gathering of young Christians in the city of Richmond, on Friday evening, April 13, at 7 o'clock, in the city hall.

Telephone and Telegraph Company. RICHMOND, N. C., April 3.—Special attention is being given to the telephone and telegraph service in this city. The company is making improvements in its lines, and is providing for the needs of the growing city.

Where Is He Going? Gentle reader, he is hurrying home. And it's house-cleaning time, too—think of that!

Fifteen years ago, he wouldn't have done it. Just at this time, he'd be "taking to the woods." But now, things are different. His house is cleaned with Pearline. That makes house-cleaning easy.

Easy for those who do it—easy for those who have to do it. No hard work, no wear and tear, no turmoil and confusion, no time wasted, no tired women, no homeless men.

Everything's done smoothly, quickly, quietly, and easily. Fry it and see.

Send it back. Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, don't buy it. JAMES PYLE, New York.

WEDDED AND PALMS. MISS LICHTENSTEIN BECOMES THE BRIDE OF MR. STRAUSS. A Brilliant Event at the Masonic Temple Last Night—The Ceremony Followed by a Brilliant Reception. Other Notable Events.

Mr. L. S. Strauss, a prominent merchant of Charleston, W. Va., and member of the firm of Goldfarb & Strauss, and Miss Rosa Lichtenstein, daughter of the late I. Lichtenstein, of this city, were united in marriage at the Masonic Temple at 8 o'clock last night.

The ceremony was performed with impressiveness by Rabbi E. N. Calisch, of Beth Ahaba Synagogue, in the presence of a very fashionable audience composed of the friends of the young couple.

The marriage took place at the foot of an immense bank of palms and ferns in the promenade hall opposite the Grand-Lodge room of the Temple.

BRILLIANT DETAILS. A full orchestra discoursed the inspiring strains of the bridal march as the cortege proceeded toward the temporarily-constructed altar. The bride, a graceful young woman, dressed in a gown of white satin, with a long train, and wearing a crown of pearls, was escorted by her brother, Mr. Isaac Lichtenstein. She was attended in a very handsome gown of white satin, and was escorted by her brother, Mr. Isaac Lichtenstein.

It's a dark day for competitors when we make offers, because our offers have such a pronounced flavor of money about them that everybody feels compelled to take us up. Our goods are stuffed and fattened values. It's the weight of the values that makes the prices seem so light.
